

WWII HISTORICAL FICTION CHOICE + EXPERT PROJECT

Student Name _____ Score _____

Category	25	20	5-15	0
Evidence of Reading	Project provides ample evidence that the student read the novel.	Project provides some evidence that the student read the novel.	It's evident that the student has not read all of the novel.	It's evident that the student has read none of the novel.
Knowledge of Novel	Student is able to share extensive information about the novel.	Student is able to share some information about the novel.	Student is able to share little information about the novel.	Student can share no information about the novel.
Effort	Project shows good effort.	Project shows some effort.	Project shows little effort.	Project shows no effort.
Finished Product	Written / Oral / Visual product is complete and well done.	Written / Oral / Visual product is complete.	Written / Oral / Visual product is partially completed.	Written / Oral / Visual product is not completed.

Book Read _____

Circle how you're going to show us what you learned or discovered while reading the book.

- Create a book trailer using Biteable.
- Write a series of imaginary text conversations between two of the characters OR build an Instagram profile for two of the characters.
- Write a 10-sentence review telling us why you liked or didn't like the book.
- Write a Top Ten List related to the book. [Top Ten Reasons I Liked This Book, Top Ten Scenes, Top Ten Bloodiest / Scariest / Unbelievable Moments, etc.]
- Draw a detailed picture based on the book.
- Think of five questions you'd like to ask the author about the book that you can't find the answers to online with a google search. We'll try to connect with the author via Twitter to ask those questions!
- What's your idea??